STATEMENT OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS
(Please initial each response)

1. You have the right to remain silent. You do not have to say anything about the crime(s) you are accused of committing. If you elect to have a trial, the State may not call you as a witness or ask you any questions. If you do decide to testify, the State will be permitted to ask you questions and anything you say can be used as evidence against you in court.

I understand that by pleading guilty I am waiving my right to remain silent as to the elements of the crime(s) to which I am entering this plea. MK

2. The waiver of your right to remain silent applies to your plea of guilty to the crime(s) in this case. Unless otherwise stated in your plea agreement, even after pleading guilty, you still have the right to refuse to answer any question or to provide any information that might tend to show you committed some other crime(s). Unless otherwise stated in your plea agreement, you can also refuse to answer or provide any information that might tend to increase the punishment for the crime(s) to which you are pleading guilty.

I understand that by pleading guilty to the crime(s) in this case, I still have the right to remain silent with respect to any other crime(s) and with respect to answering questions or providing information that may increase my sentence. MK

I understand that as a term of my plea agreement, I have waived my right to remain silent with respect to any other crime(s) and with respect to answering questions or providing information that may increase my sentence. MK

3. You have the right to be represented by an attorney. If you want an attorney and cannot pay for one, you can ask the Judge for an attorney. You may be required to reimburse the county for the cost of this representation. MK
4. You are presumed to be innocent. You will be found guilty if: 1) you plead guilty in front of the Judge; or 2) you are found guilty at a jury trial. I understand that by pleading guilty I am waiving my right to be presumed innocent. MK
5. You have the right to a speedy and public jury trial before twelve persons. A jury trial is a court hearing to determine whether you are guilty or not guilty of the charge(s) brought against you. In a jury trial, you have the right to present evidence in your defense and to testify in your own defense. You are not required to do so, however. The State must convince all of the jurors of your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

I understand that by pleading guilty I am waiving my right to a speedy and public jury trial. MK

6. You have the right to question (confront) the witnesses testifying against you. This occurs during a jury trial. At trial, the State must prove its case by calling witnesses to testify under oath in front of you, the jury, and your attorney. Your attorney could then cross-examine (question) each witness. You could also call witnesses of your choosing to testify on your behalf. If you do not have the funds to bring those witnesses to court, the State will pay the cost of bringing your witnesses to court and will compel their attendance by the use of the subpoena power of the court.

I understand that by pleading guilty I am waiving my right to question (confront) the witnesses against me, and present witnesses and evidence in my defense. MK

7. The State has the burden of proving you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. I understand that by pleading guilty, I am waiving my right to require the State to prove my guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. MK
