GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED:

On Friday, November 3, 2023, at 11:37 PM, members of the Metropolitan Police Department's Third District responded to a ShotSpotter activation in the 1300 block of Fairmont Street NW. Upon arrival, officers located a 14-year-old juvenile with the initials "N.E." (the "decendent") at the corner of 14th and Fairmont Streets NW, Washington, D.C. 2009, not conscious, not breathing, and suffering from an apparent gunshot wound. The decendent was transported by DC Fire and EMS to MedStar Washington Hospital Center, where despite all life-saving measures, he was pronounced dead on November 4, 2023, at 12:32 AM by Dr. Anthony Shiflett.

An additional 17-year-old juvenile victim ("V2") was located at 1401 Fairmont Street, Northwest suffering from apparent gunshot injuries to the right arm and both legs. V2 was transported by DC Fire and EMS to MedStar Washington Hospital Center, where V2 was admitted in stable condition.

The decendent was transported to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, where an autopsy was performed to determine the cause and manner of death.

On Saturday, November 4, 2023, a detective responded to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner in Washington D.C to observe the autopsy examination of the decendent.

The autopsy was performed by Doctor Batoul Aoun, and at the conclusion of the autopsy examination, Doctor Aoun provided her findings. The autopsy revealed that the decendent sustained a single gunshot wound to the left back and a projectile was recovered from the left chest. Blood was found in the abdomen and left chest. The decendent sustained injuries to the heart, liver, and stomach.

As a result of the autopsy, Doctor Aoun from the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner determined that the cause of death was a gunshot wound to the torso. The manner of death was ruled a HOMICIDE.

The primary scene is located at 2600 14th Street NW (Crown Gas Station/Quick Shop) in the parking lot and gas pump area. The gas station is located on the west side of 14th Street NW. There are two entrances/exits to the parking lot and gas pump area on 14th Street NW. There is an additional entrance/exit on the south side of the parking lot and gas pump area that is located on the 1400 block of Euclid Street NW.

Closer to the north entrance/exit on 14th Street NW, in between pumps two and three, three scooters were found lying on their sides. Just to the west of pump two, was a black ski mask lying on the ground. A fragment was located on the cement platform of pump five. Two cartridge casings (items 1 and 3 on the picture below) were recovered a few feet to the west of the gas pumps. The remaining ten cartridge casings were loosely grouped a few feet further west, closer to the entrance to the Quick Shop. All twelve of the cartridge casings recovered at the scene were 9mm, though five separate brands were represented (one Winchester, three Hornady, three Speer, four Ozark, and one PMC).

Various other debris and garbage was located throughout the parking lot and gas pump area.

The second scene is located at the intersection of 14th Street NW and Fairmont Street NW. Some of the decedent's upper body clothing was located in the southbound travel lanes of 14th Street NW in the middle of the intersection with Fairmont Street NW. Located next to the decedent's clothing was a bag containing medical waste. Additional medical waste was located around the decedent's clothing on the ground. There was also a small reddish-brown discoloration of suspected blood on the ground next to the clothing.

The third scene is located in the 1400 block of Fairmont Street NW. On the north side and the south side of the street are large apartment buildings carrying the addresses of 1401 Fairmont Street NW and 1400 Fairmont Street NW respectively. A magazine with suspected blood on it was located lying in the middle of the street in line with the entrances of the apartment buildings. A cartridge casing was recovered from the ground next to the magazine. The majority of V2's clothing was located on the front steps leading up to 1401 Fairmont Street NW. There were reddish-brown stains of suspected blood on much of the clothing. There were also numerous reddish-brown stains of suspected blood on the ground near the victim's clothing. On and around the clothing, medical waste was observed, including a tourniquet. Numerous reddish-brown droplets of suspected blood were observed in the lobby of the apartment building. A projectile was observed on the floor of the lobby next to the stairs. The reddish-brown droplets of suspected blood continued down the stairs in the apartment building to the basement level up to the door which leads to the hallway where the apartments are located. The reddish-brown droplets of suspected blood stopped at that threshold before leading to an actual apartment.

INTERVIEW WITH V2:

On November 4, 2023, a detective responded to MedStar Washington Hospital Center to check on the condition of V2. The nursing staff advised that V2 sustained a total of three gunshot wounds—one to the right bicep, one to the left upper thigh, and one to the right upper thigh. The nursing staff further reported that despite V-2's injuries, V2 was in stable condition and would be admitted primarily for further observation. V2 had been given fentanyl for the pain caused by the injuries, and it made V-2 drowsy. He needed to be woken up a few times during the interview.

V2 stated that V2 and a family member were at a friend's house on the one-way side of Fairmont Street NW (west of 14th Street NW). V2 stated that IT was riding IT's scooter to the gas station to get something to drink when IT heard gunshots. The detective asked V2 if V2 saw where the shoots came from. V2 stated that the shots were coming from directly in front of V2 in the gas station parking lot. The detective asked if V2 remembered how many shots V2 heard and V2 stated that IT did not. V2 stated that everything happened fast and when IT heard the shots, IT dropped IT's scooter and ran back towards the apartment building. V2 stated that IT realized IT was shot a few minutes later.

Video:

Videos from three cameras (two interior and one exterior) were viewed and downloaded from the Crown Gas Station/Quick Shop. These videos are approximately sixteen minutes and forty-four seconds ahead of real time. They are in color and do not have sound.

All times referenced below are that of the time stamp shown on the video footage. The following is a synopsis of the videos from the Crown Gas Station, combining events from multiple cameras:

- At 11:52:04 PM, the suspect is observed riding a scooter in the gas station parking lot towards the front door. The suspect's scooter emits a bluish light from beneath it. The suspect is wearing a black ski mask with a white Nike logo, a black Moose Knuckle Jacket, dark-colored two-tone Jordan 9 shoes, and light-colored blue jeans with a very colorful and distinctive pattern on each of the legs.

Development of Lorenzo Thompson as the Defendant:

On Saturday November 4th, 2023, Detectives responded to the Third District Crime Suppression Office to distribute a BOLO that had been created. The BOLO contained images of the suspect taken from the gas station videos. While at the Third District Crime Suppression Office, detectives met with Officer Whitfield, who stated that he believed the individual in the BOLO to be Lorenzo Thompson.

Detectives showed Officer Whitfield the printed copy of the BOLO. Officer Whitfield initially stated that he was 80% sure that it was Lorenzo Thompson. Officer Whitfield stated that the eyebrows matched, the facial structure matched, and the skin tone matched. Officer Whitfield stated that Lorenzo Thompson was from the Ledroit Park area and used to live in the 400 block of Elm Street NW. Officer Whitfield stated that Crime Suppression had arrested Lorenzo Whitfield recently in reference to a Custody Order for Robbery.

Detectives showed Officer Whitfield still shots of other individuals from the gas station, including several males and the female with the red braids. Officer Whitfield looked at the still shots of the males and stated he did not recognize them. Officer Whitfield then looked at the still shot of the female with the red braids. Officer Whitfield looked at the still shot of the female with the red braids for approximately 15-20 seconds before he stated that it looked like Lorenzo Thompson's mother.

Officer Whitfield initially provided a name for Lorenzo Thompson's mother as "Blue Thompson" and stated that she now lives on [REDACTED]. Officer Whitfield provided the address of [REDACTED].

Detectives showed Officer Whitfield two short video clips from surveillance cameras at the Crown Gas Station. These clips depicted the suspect riding the scooter in the parking lot and parking it, as well as the female with the red braids walking up to the scooter.

After viewing these video clips Detective Whitfield stated that he was 1000% sure that it was Lorenzo Thompson. Officer Whitfield stated he did not think that Lorenzo Thompson lives on [REDACTED] but that he knew that the Lorenzo Thompson's mother lives there now.

A short time later your affiant received a phone call from Officer Whitfield. Officer Whitfield stated that he was initially incorrect about the name of Lorenzo Thompson's mother. Officer Whitfield stated that the mother's name was "Natalie Thompson", and that "Blue Thompson" was the name of a different relative.

Officer Whitfield also provided an Instagram name for Lorenzo Thompson of [REDACTED]. Officer Whitfield screen-recorded Lorenzo Thompson's Instagram stories and provided them to your affiant. In pictures posted to the Instagram account, Lorenzo Thompson can be seen wearing a Moose Knuckle coat that matches the coat the suspect wore, as well as the distinctive Jordan Retro 9 shoes.
